

TO WHOM IT CONCERNS

For registration of feed and feedstuffs for marketing in Iceland the following documents are necessary:

A. Official registration number of the producer and seller.

B. Feed for food producing animals:

1. List of ingredients stating percentages of each raw material including all additives (E-numbers and names)
2. Declaration of the chemical composition
3. If ingredients are of animal origin then:
A health certificate declaring the sanitary procedures in production, packing and handling (method of sterilization, autoclavation etc.), absence of microorganisms, signed by an official veterinarian.

C. Feed for pets:

1. List of ingredients in declining mass order including all additives (E-numbers and names)
2. Declaration of the chemical composition
3. If ingredients are of animal origin:
 - a. The feed is originated in EES countries then:
A Commercial document from the manufacturer
 - b. The feed is originated from countries outside EES then
A health certificate declaring the sanitary procedures in production, packing and handling (method of sterilization, autoclavation etc.), absence of microorganisms, signed by an official veterinarian.

All the above information will be treated as confidential as it is intended for official control purposes only.